

Retriever and Adventure Dog Training The Wildrose Way

Date: December 5 - 6, 2009

Where: George Bush Park
Houston, Texas

Sponsored by: Bluebonnet Poodle Club of Houston

Donation: $300 a person with dog to train

$250 with a poodle

$150 to observe without a dog

$100 for poodle owners to observe

Instructor: Mike Stewart, Owner—Wildrose Kennels

www.uklabs.com

Train your Dog the Wildrose Way

- 2 Day Hands on Course with your Dog in the field
- Focus on Fundamentals of Dog Handling
- Broken into Small Groups to focus on individual attention

Mike is featured on weekly on Ducks Unlimited TV and episodes of American Birdhunter. He is the owner and operator of Wildrose Kennels based in Oxford, Mississippi and trainer of —Drake and Deke the DU mascots.

This workshop will cover the Wildrose method of handling sporting dogs—obedience to hand signals. Emphasis is on developing the handler's skills. Focus topics: delivery, whistle commands, steadiness, handling, hunting cover, and lining, all based on positive training principles—no force, no electronics. Also covered will be the elements of an exceptional trail dog... the perfect complement to a family's sporting dog lifestyle.

Handlers are encouraged to bring their dogs and classes will be split into small groups to facilitate individual attention.

All breeds welcome- 6 months of age and older. Limited to 25 dogs. Register early!

Send your $100 deposit in today ($50 for observers) to reserve your place.

Call or email Mary Cooper for mailing address:

For more information contact Mary Cooper 281-455-8960 or mbcoop1021@sbcglobal.net or Cathy Stewart 662- 234-5788 or uklabs@hughes.net or Sheree Melancon 832-212-1306.